

Thomas Jefferson, President of the United States of America.

To all to whom these Presents shall come Greeting —

Whereas a Treaty was made and concluded, at Fort Industry on the Miami of the Lake, the fourth day of July last past, between the United States of America, and the Wyandot, Ottawa, Chippawa, Munsee and Delaware, Shawnee and Pottawattima Nations or Tribes of Indians, which Treaty is in the words following, to wit: —

A Treaty Between the United States of America, and the Sackems, Chiefs, and Warriors of the Wyandot, Ottawa, Chippawa, Munsee and Delaware, Shawnee and Pottawatima Nations, holden at Fort Industry on the Miami, of the Lake on the Fourth day of July Anno Domini, One thousand eight hundred and five.

The said Indian Nations do again acknowledge themselves, and all their Tribes, to be in friendship with, and under the protection of, the United States.

Article 1st

The Boundary line between the United States and the Nations aforesaid, shall in future be a Meridian line drawn North and South, through a Boundary to be erected on the south shore of Lake Erie, one hundred and twenty miles due east of the west boundary line of the State of Pennsylvania, extending north until it intersects the boundary line of the United States, and extending south it intersects a line heretofore established by the Treaty of Greenville.

Article 2nd

The Indian Nations aforesaid, for the consideration of friendship to the United States, and the sums of Money hereinafter mentioned, to be paid annually, to the Wyandot, Shawnee, Munsee and Delaware Nations, have ceded and do hereby cede and relinquish, to said United States, forever, all the Lands belonging to said United States, lying east of the aforesaid line, bounded southerly and easterly by the line established by said Treaty of Greenville, and westerly by the Northernmost part of the forty first Degree of North Latitude.

Article 3rd

The United States to promote harmony, manifest their liberality, and in consideration of the cession made in the preceding article, will every year forever hereafter, at Detroit or some other convenient place, pay and deliver, to the Wyandot, Munsee and Delaware Nations, and those of the Shawnee and Seneca Nations who reside with the Wyandots, the sum of Eight hundred and twenty five dollars current money of the United States, and the further sum of One hundred and seventy five dollars making in the whole an annuity of One thousand dollars, which last sum of One hundred and seventy five dollars has been secured to the President in trust for said Nations, by the Connecticut Land Company, and by the company incorporated by the name of "The proprietors of the half million acres of land lying south of Lake Erie called sufferers land," payable annually as aforesaid, and to be divided between said Nations from time to time, in such proportions, as said Nations with the approbation of the President shall agree.

Article 4th

To prevent all misunderstanding hereafter, it is to be solemnly remembered, that the Ottawa, Chippawa Nations, and such of the Pottawatima Nation as reside on the river Huron of Lake Erie, and in the neighbourhood thereof, have received from the Connecticut Land Company, and the company incorporated by the name of "The proprietors of the half million acres of land lying south of Lake Erie called sufferers land," the sum of four thousand dollars in hand, and have secured to the President of the United States in trust for them, the further sum of Twelve thousand dollars payable in six annual installments, of two thousand each, which several sums is the full amount of their proportion of the purchases effected by this treaty, and also by a treaty with said Companies bearing even date herewith, which proportions were agreed on and concluded by the whole of said Nations in their general council, which several sums together with two thousand nine hundred and sixteen dollars and sixty seven cents secured to the President, to raise said sum of one hundred and seventy five dollars annuity as aforesaid, is the amount of the consideration paid by the Agents of the Connecticut reserve for the cession of their Lands.

Article 5th

The said Indian Nations parties to this treaty, shall be at liberty to fish, and hunt, within the Territory and Lands which they have now ceded to the United States, so long as, they shall demean themselves peaceably.

In Witness whereof Charles Souell Esquire a Commissioner on the part of the United States, and the Sackems, Chiefs and Warriors of the Indian Nations aforesaid, have hereunto set their hands and seals.

Snodgrass.

Now be it known, That I Thomas Jefferson, President of the United States of America, having seen and considered the said Treaty, do, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof, accept, ratify and confirm the same and every article & clause thereof.

In Testimony whereof, I have caused the Seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed, and signed the same with my hand. Done at the City of Washington this twenty-fourth day of April A.D. one thousand eight hundred & Six, and of the Independence of the U. States of America the Thirtieth.

By the President.

James Madison

Secretary of State.

Th. Jefferson

In Senate of the United States.

January 17. 1806.

The treaty made at Fort Industry, between the United States and the Wyandot tribe of Indians, and their allies, was read the third time.

Resolved, two thirds of the Senators present concurring therein, that the Senate do advise and consent to the ratification of the treaty made and concluded at Fort Industry, on the Miami of the Lake, on the 4th day of July last, between the United States and the Wyandot, Ottawa, Chipawa, Munsee, Delaware, Shawanese, and Potawatamies, tribes of Indians.

Attest,

Sam: A. Mif Secretary.

January 17, 1886 -
Resolution of the Senate approving of the Treaty concluded at Fort Industry with certain Indian tribes.

By the President of the United States of America.
A Proclamation

Whereas A Treaty between the United States of America, and the Sachems, Chiefs, and Warriors, of the Wyandot, Ottawa, Chippawa, Munsee and Delaware, Shawanee and Pottawatima Nations, holden at Fort Industry on the Miami, of the Lake, on the Fourth day of July Anno Domini, One thousand eight hundred and five, and was duly ratified and confirmed by the President of the United States on the twenty-fourth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand Eight hundred and six by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, which Treaty is in the words following, to wit.

A Treaty between the United States of America, and the Sachems, Chiefs, and Warriors, of the Wyandot, Ottawa, Chippawa, Munsee and Delaware, Shawanee and Pottawatima Nations, holden at Fort Industry on the Miami of the Lake on the Fourth day of July Anno Domini, One thousand eight hundred and five.

Article 1st

The said Indian Nations do again acknowledge themselves, and all their Tribes, to be in friendship with, and under the protection of, the United States.

Article 2^d

The Boundary line between the United States and the Nations aforesaid, shall in future be a Meridian line drawn North and South, through a Boundary to be erected on the South shore of Lake Erie, One hundred and twenty miles due West of the West boundary line of the State of Pennsylvania, extending north until it intersects the boundary line of the United States, and extending south it intersects a line heretofore established by the Treaty of Greenville.

Article 3^d

The Indian Nations aforesaid, for the consideration of Friendship to the United States, and the sums of money herein after mentioned, to be paid Annually, to the Wyandot, Shawanee and Munsee & Delaware Nations, have ceded and do hereby cede and relinquish, to said United States forever, all the Lands belonging to said United States, lying east of the aforesaid line, Bounded southerly and Easterly by the line established by said Treaty of Greenville, and northerly by the northernmost part of the forty first degree of North latitude.
